IN ALL THINGS, CHRIST

February 2: Colossians 3:1-17 – Christ, The One in Whom We Find Our Identity

One of the most cherished tenets of this life and our eternity is our identity. From the exchange of names in mutual greetings, family lineage and ancestry, to the essential components of our identity that relate to our work, citizenship, taxation, or many other official acts. Identity matters. Knowing WHO we are and WHO'S we are is not only essential in the everyday, but also key to our sense of place and purpose in life. Our relationship to Christ comes with an identity that compares to no other yet informs and shapes everything. This week will explore what that identity is and why it matters... the most.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIMDEL Children's Education Ministry Info Meeting- Feb 16

SIMDEL is grateful to have been selected by the Deacons to receive the offering to be given on Sunday, February 16th. Families previously living lives of hopelessness to those beginning to dream of a future that had been unimaginable.

An informational meeting will be held in Classroom #2, in the lower level also on February 16th between morning services. As SIMDEL will not be the recipient of this year's Lent, "Give Up To Give" campaign, we humbly ask your continued generous support of this ministry through this offering.

If your student has moved on from college and should be removed from the list, let us know as well. Contact Mike Davelaar or Colin Attema for more information.
